Corrections & Clarifications

B In "What l'Affaire DSK Teaches the French" (Global Economics, May 23-29), Christopher Lee was identified as a former U.S. Representative from New Jersey. He represented New York.

B In "The Mastermind of Adrenaline Marketing" (Features, May 23-29), we incorrectly reported Sports Illustrated's paid circulation. It has a verified weekly paid circulation of 2.91 million.

B "Tom Keene's EconoChat" (Global Economics, May 23-29) incorrectly quoted Goldman Sachs economist Andrew Tilton as saying that GDP in the U.S. would grow 3.5 percent in the first half of 2011. Mr. Tilton said GDP would grow 3.5 percent in the second quarter.
